WORKED CONTINUATION - COVER THIS SECTION FIRST

62...d1=Q#

62...d1=Q# Mate: queen on d1 gives check; White has no legal reply. The pawn becomes a queen.

The line ends in checkmate against the king on g1. Material gain is unnecessary once no legal defense exists.

CHECKPOINT

Which piece delivers the final check, and why can the defender not continue? Answer: Queen on d1. The king is in check and the position has zero legal replies.

CARRY THE IDEA INTO YOUR GAMES

Always inspect stalemate and underpromotion resources. A queen is usually strongest, but the exact position determines the choice.

WHAT THIS POSITION TEACHES

An advanced pawn can turn a tactical sequence into a new queen or another useful piece. Promotion may occur with capture or check, and the choice of piece can change the outcome.

HOW TO LOOK

Calculate the pawn's route, the safety of the promotion square, and whether the new piece can survive or give a decisive check.

The defending king is on g1. Geometrically undefended: queen on b8 and knight on f7. Check for tactical protection.
